

UNEMPLOYMENT NOT NOW HELD SERIOUS

Governors at Conference Say Conditions Do Not Give Cause for Much Apprehension

PUBLIC WORKS ADVOCATED

Building of Roads and Other Projects Are Urged—Favor Depopulation of Anarchists Here

WASHINGTON. March 3.—Governors of states and mayors of municipalities meeting today in White House have voted in favor of immediate demand by President Wilson, in a brief address, emphasize the principle that governments should serve in the interests of the common people. In this spirit he urged that the federal, state and local governments work together "steadying and easing and facilitating the whole labor processes of the United States."

Besides listening to addresses by Secretaries of War, Navy, State, Commerce, Postmaster General, he also took up unemployment within their respective states. A majority declared that there were not enough men out of work in their communities to justify serious apprehension, although all advocated immediate action by state, county and city governments to promote road building and other public works, thus furnishing a buffer reservoir of employment during the period when industries are being reorganized and war industries are converting.

ROAD Building Planned. Most states already have adopted programs of road building. It appeared, but several governors reported that they had difficulty in convincing local authorities and private industries to go ahead with improvements now without awaiting an expected reduction in wages and material costs.

The governors echoed the optimism of the administration by cabinet members who spoke. Secretary Wilson, who presided at the conference in the east room, predicted an actual labor shortage within the next year instead of a surplus. To combat social unrest, he urged industrial leaders to eliminate rapidly the extra profits of war times. Secretary Daniels said he did not believe there would be general unemployment unless it suggested that the country would find John Doe yards. Secretary Baker declared that the United States could do most good to the world just now by showing solidarity of governmental, social and business conditions.

Favor Depopulation. The conference endorsed unanimously Secretary Wilson's declaration that men advocating overthrow of the government by force should be deported.

The reports by governors and mayors will continue tomorrow and the conference will last through Wednesday.

Many governors reported labor conditions in their states above normal with a shortage rather than a surplus of workers the rule. Regarding his state, Governor Pleasants of Louisiana said the agricultural districts were looking for workers which they could not find, and that the state expected a great revival of commerce when conditions became stabilized.

LEAGUE REVISION IS DEMANDED

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE Senator Swanson, both of Virginia, joined in simultaneous objection and the resolution went over under the rules.

Unable to secure consideration of this measure, Senator Lodge read the names of 37 members of the next senate, which will consider the peace treaty, who, the minority leader said, favored his resolution.

Discussion Ends.

There was no further discussion of the matter and debate on the $15,000,000 railroad administration revolving fund was adjourned. The vote by the republican leader came as a surprise to many of the democratic senators, but some few of them had been advised of it in advance.

On the list read by Mr. Lodge were the names of several republicans who were elected. The total of 37 is more than three-fifths of the membership of enough to defeat ratification of the peace treaty for which a two-thirds vote is required. A few senators whose names were not on the list, Mr. Lodge said, also had advised him of their support of his resolution.

While opposing the proposed constitution, the republicans would express the views of the senate "that nearly all of the world should unite to promote peace and general disarmament." It also said the proposal for a league "to insure the permanent peace of the world should be taken up for careful and serious consideration," after the peace treaty had been concluded.

The republican senators and senators-elect whose names were on the list read by Mr. Lodge were: Senator Lodge, Massachusetts; Koss, Pennsylvania; Sherman, Illinois; New, Indiana; Moses, New Hampshire; Wadsworth, New York; Fernald, Maine; Cumming, Iowa; Warren, Wyoming; Watson, Indiana; Sterling, South Dakota; Frelinghuysen, New Jersey; Harding, Ohio; Hale, Maine; Borah, Idaho; Brundage, Connecticut; Calder, New York; Penrose, Colorado; Thompson, Francis, Maryland; Clegg, Kansas; Shriver, Missouri; Townsend, Michigan; Johnson, California; Billings, Vermont; Leinenweber, Wisconsin; Poindexter, Washington; Sutherland, West Virginia; Smoot, Utah; and Gruening, North Dakota.

Senators-elect Edes, New Jersey; Keyes, New Hampshire; McCormick, Illinois; Capper, Colorado; Newell, Michigan; Ball, Delaware; etc.

The 12 republicans of the new senate whose names were not on the list were: Senators Colt, Rhode Island; Fall, New Mexico; Jones, Washington; Kellogg, Minnesota; Kuykendall, Iowa; La Follette, Wisconsin; McCumber, North Dakota; McNary, Oregon; Nelson, Minnesota; and Norris, Nebraska; and Senators-elect Capper, Kansas, and Edens, West Virginia.

Senator Lodge, in reading the list, said that "in Justice to three or four others, I ought to say that we have been unable to reach them, but if they give their approval their names will be added."

Several republican senators refused to sign the list; it was said, some because they did not believe the resolution went far enough.

Although not specifically declared in the resolution, Senator Lodge and other republican leaders explained privately that the prime purpose of tonight's action was to save notice of the peace commissioners and, especially, the peace delegations of foreign countries that enough senators of the next senate are now formally pledged by signature against the league of nations' constitution as now drafted. They expressed hope and confidence that their action would compel fundamental changes in the league charter. They also pointed to the importance of the declaration of the resolution that those favoring the League resolution also were in sympathy with a movement for many conferences late today between republicans and movements in India. It was reported by the republican leaders that the cooperation of Senator Knox of Pennsylvania.

CONNECTICUT WEATHER IS THE WARMEST IN HISTORY

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 4.—Connecticut weather, sharp, is scratching their heads and polishing up their memories of cold winter. It is to the point which advanced to February with scarcely a touch of snow, and so little cold along the sound shore. There has been little health in skating in southern Connecticut during the winter, and the ice men are already predicting a dearth for next summer.

WEATHER MISLEADS HENS; "EGG MARKET IS CRAZY"

CHICAGO, March 4.—The beautiful spring-like weather Chicago has been enjoying for the past week or so has evidently aligned one of the hen. She got into her head, blew her hair that it's early April, and—

"The egg market is crazy," said a leading Chicago egg broker. "Eggs ought to be plentiful and high. Instead they are plentiful and one of the cheapest foods on the market."

BARBER GIVES RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR

Mr. A. E. Price, who has been a barber in New York for many years, made the following statement:

"The 12 republicans of the new senate whose names were not on the list were: Senators Colt, Rhode Island; Fall, New Mexico; Jones, Washington; Kellogg, Minnesota; Kuykendall, Iowa; La Follette, Wisconsin; McCumber, North Dakota; McNary, Oregon; Nelson, Minnesota; and Norris, Nebraska; and Senators-elect Capper, Kansas, and Edens, West Virginia.

Damages aggregating $75,000 are sought in two suits filed in the district court yesterday against S. J. Perkins and Martha Perkins by Maggie Jones and G. H. Jones.

The petitions in both cases set out that the Jones were residing in a house rented from the Perkins on South Swan street on February 24, when Mrs. Perkins came to the house where Mrs. Jones was sick in bed and told her that they would have to move out at once and that she was going to cut the gas off that day.

Not knowing that the Perkins had no legal right to thus elect them, she alleges, Mrs. Jones attempted to dissuade them from doing so. When she arose she became sick, fainted and fell in the floor and broke and crushed the bones in one of her limbs, according to the petition.

As a result of the injuries so received, Mrs. Jones asks $25,000 actual damages and a like sum as punitive damages. Mr. Jones predicates his suit upon the loss of his wife's services and her suffering, and asks $25,000 actual damages.
